

Tasker

Notes:

- Each task running within a separate docker container and can be written in any programming language
- Each task responsible to create its docker image in a CI process
- Task containers can be running on other nodes in the future
- Tasker is responsible to schedule tasks specified in tasks config table, by pulling their image from Docker Registry and run them.